

MECM Richard D. Ilcisko
Command Master Chief (CMC)
Coast Guard Port Security Unit 309 (CG PSU 309)
United States Coast Guard Reserve

Master Chief Ilcisko assumed the duties as the Reserve Command Master Chief of Coast Guard Port Security Unit 309, Port Clinton OH in August 2022. In this role he serves as the senior enlisted leader and advisor to the Command on all matters impacting the enlisted workforce and their families.

Master Chief Ilcisko's previous Coast Guard Reserve assignments include Coast Guard Station Buffalo Senior Enlisted Reserve Advisor, Sector Buffalo Response Division, Marine Safety Unit Cleveland Boarding Officer, Port Security Unit 309 SECDIV Squad Leader.

Master Chief Ilcisko enlisted in the U.S. Army in July of 1994 and completed over five years as a Military Police Officer. In July of 1999 Master Chief Ilcisko transferred to the Coast Guard reserves and was assigned to PSU 309. Master Chief Ilcisko has been recalled to active-duty numerous times and has deployed overseas twice with PSU 309. Master Chief Ilcisko is a proud graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officers Academy Reserve Class XXXII R- and the Coast Guard Senior Enlisted Leadership Course class 66.

Master Chief Ilcisko's personal awards include Coast Guard Commendation Medal, Two Coast Guard Achievement Medals, Army Achievement Medal, Three Coast Guard Commandants Letter of Commendation, Coast Guard Presidential Unit Citation, Navy Marine Corps Presidential Unit Citation, Four Coast Guard Unit Commendation Ribbon, Coast Guard Meritorious Unit Commendation Ribbon, Four Meritorious Team Commendation Ribbons, Seven Coast Guard Reserve Good Conduct Medals, National Defense Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Two Coast Guard Special Operations Service Ribbon, Navy Sea Service Deployment Ribbon, Navy and Marine Corps Overseas Service Ribbon, Armed Forces Reserve Medal with Silver Hourglass and 5 mobilizations, Coast Guard Rifle Sharpshooter Ribbon and Coast Guard Pistol Expert Medal. Master Chief Ilcisko is authorized to wear the Port Security Insignia.